(a) It will rest primarily with the Member of Government in charge of the department concerned to indicate firstly the necessity for any proposed piece of legislation and secondly the main lines on which it should be undertaken.

(b) The matter will then be considered in Council and the approval of His Highness the Maharaja obtained to the proposed legislation.

(c) The Administrative Department of the Secretariat will then prepare the preliminary draft and submit it to the Member in charge of the Department.

(d) The draft will after approval by the Member in charge of the Department, be transferred to the Law Secretariat for scrutiny.

If he considers that any such bill falls within the operation of article 18 of the Treaty, he will advise the Durbār accordingly and communicate any suggestion the Government of India may wish to offer about the provisions of the bill. The subsequent procedure in such cases will be the same as that now prescribed and followed in the case of Legislation-affecting Pre-Rendition laws that is to say, the bill will be pursued in its subsequent stages until the Select Committee's report is considered by the Legislative Council and then the Government of India will be addressed for sanction under Article 18 of the Treaty. On receipt of such sanction the bill will again be read in the Council in accordance with the rules and standing Orders and finally passed incorporating amendments, if any, proposed by Government and based on the suggestions of the Government of India. The assent of His Highness the Maharaja will follow the final passing in the Legislative Council. In regard to other bills which neither in the opinion of the Government nor in that of the Resident affect Pre-Rendition laws, the bill will pass through the Legislative Council and receive the assent of His Highness the Maharaja in the usual course.

Sir, W

I have the honour to state that the following Provident Funds have been established and are being administered by the Palace for the benefit of its employees for several years past:

1. Kille Kacheri Provident Fund.
2. Jillo Kacheri -do-
3. Bangalore Palace -do-
4. Fernhill Palace -do-
5. Palace Stables -do-
6. Body Guards Dept. -do-

To these Provident Funds, the employees are required to make contribution at definite rates regularly every month which are being deducted from their pay. As these funds are constituted and administered on exactly the same lines as the Government General Provident Fund and with the same object, except with regard to the withdrawals which are not allowed as in Government when a subscriber continues in service, I request you to be so good as to obtain the necessary sanction for extending the provisions of the Provident Fund Regulation IX of 1917 to the Provident Funds of the Palace Departments referred to above. The deposits made and the accrued interest interest are not payable on demand or at the option of the subscriber. . They are not attachable for any dues of the departments in which they are employed.

A set of rules relating to each fund is enclosed for reference.

I have the honour to be,
